ALIGNING EXPECTATIONS

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER IN ORDER TO ALIGN GROUP MEMBERS' EXPECTATIONS:

1. What day will we meet on?
2. What time will we meet from?
3. Where will we meet?
4. What are our expectations for the relationships in this group? How much time will we spend together outside of group time? (examples: phone calls, hanging out, being checked on, etc.) (2 Corinthians 13:11; Proverbs 17:17)
5. Where will this community group rate as a priority in relation to other activities/commitments? When is it OK to miss our weekly group meeting? (examples: dates, work event, family in town, vacation, etc.)
6. What will a typical meeting look like?
7. What kind of study will we do?
8. How will the group process issues with Scripture? What about opinions? (2 Timothy 3:16-17, Zechariah 8:16)
9. Will we serve together as a group or as individuals? Will we adopt a cause?
10. Are there any topics that should be off limits to discuss with the group? If so, which ones? Why? (examples: dating issues, sin struggles, work issues, conflict, priorities, spiritual disciplines, finances, etc.)
11. At what level should issues be discussed? (examples: sharing budgets, boundaries in relationships, conflict, etc.)
